DEATH ANGEL BECKONS

Miss Minnie Z. Allen Crosses the River on Thursday Afternoon Following an Illness of Four Years. Funeral Sunday.

Miss Minnie Allen, daughter of Mrs. Thomas J. Allen, died at her home on Main street, this city, on Thursday at 2:40 o'clock p. m. For four years she has been a most patient sufferer from pulmonary trouble superinduced by an attack of typhoid fever from which she never recovered.

The funeral was held from the home at 1:30 o'clock p. m. on Sunday afternoon. The home was crowded with friends who paid their last respects to their deceased friend. Many beautiful floral offerings covered the casket. Rev. J. R. Wilson of the Presbyterian church conducted the funeral services. His expressions on this occasion were most beautiful and explanatory of the visit of the death angel. The remains were laid to rest in Oakgrove cemetery beside those of father and brother who died but a few short months previously.

Minnie Zollinger Allen, was born at Maxville, Perry county, Ohio, on February 28, 1870, being the second child of Thomas and Lucy Weldy Allen. She was of a quiet disposition and numbered her friends by the score. Following the removal of the family from the old home village in southern Perry county to Creola, Vinson county, she came to Logan with her parents 23 years ago and has been a resident of the town continuously since. For some years she was employed by The Journal-Gazette. She was an accomplished musician both on the piano and violin, having taken instruction at the North Western Ohio university at Ada and the Oberlin university at Westerville, O. Here is the third bereavement which this family has met with during the past eighteen months and has been a patient sufferer for the past four years. Four years ago she was stricken with typhoid fever which later developed into pulmonary affection. The best medical skill of Cincinnati, Columbus and Logan was employed but without avail. She breathed her last at 2:40 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, December 21st. Gone but not forgotten, her memory will live not only in the family circle but by all for whom she had a kind word and smile regardless of conditions of life. After a noble fight for life Minnie passed peacefully away surrounded by friends, her mother and sister, two brothers being out of the city. She expressed her willingness to meet the grim monster, cross the river and be with her father and brother who embarked on that long and silent journey but a few months previously. Her last words were to her mother who has so tenderly cared for her during the long and dreary days and nights which she suffered during the past two years.

A year ago she united with the Presbyterian church under the pastorate of Rev. H. J. Steward and has kept close to the tenets of the christian religion not only during her brief membership in that church but during her short life. She was aged 35 years, ten months and ten days. The family desires to thank the many friends and neighbors who assisted and extended assistance during the extended illness and death of our beloved daughter and sister Minnie. To those who presented flowers are also extended our most sincere regards and most hearty thanks.

MRS. T. J. ALLEN & CHILDREN.

The "King of Terrors," Death, appears only to those who do not anticipate his coming and are unprepared for his visitation. But Ithuriel, him who calls with a crown, is the most beautiful, benignant angel ministering around the Great White Throne. With his touch ethereal, the Angel called on last Friday, one of the "chieftest among ten thousand," amongst the celestial girls of our city, Minnie Allen.

For many months she was on the path down to the dark River "Whose base Deaths deep waters lie, Shuddering, dashed until, She saw the rainbow still, Arching the home beyond the grave."

In her life work, Minnie Allen was useful, her labor and her graces are flowers along her pathway fragrant with sweet memories, cherished in loving hearts more inspiring to the living, than any granite monument below the sun. She was a printer, a Journalist, a newspaper girl. She was one of the most esteemed of the many who gave clean work and high tone to the SENTINEL, as well as to the several papers with which she was related. Her works, in this regard, do follow her and the Immortal Types preserve her handiwork and her inspirations.

She was in declining health for many months, but she bore her affliction with the fortitude of a martyr, and the resignation of a Christian. Death was anticipated, was welcomed. She is at rest. A Star translated, an Angel with the Eternal.

In her spring time she flew. Where the wings of the soul are unfurled And now, above evening's cold dew, Looks radiantly down on the tears of the world.

The family have our sympathy in this sad bereavement.

Death of Thomas Stalters

Mr. Thomas Stalters of Somerset, younger brother of John Stalters, and for some time employed with Sniders, died suddenly on Christmas morning from epilepsy. He was attending church, feeling unwell he went out and fell at the church door, dying almost instantly. He was an exemplary young man, well known among our working men and highly esteemed. His sudden death is a sad bereavement, and in common with his friends in Logan, sorrowing in his death we join in sympathy with the bereaved.

Death of John Sweeney

Mr. John Sweeney, a well known citizen of our town died on last Friday morning, at the age of 45 years. The funeral was held at the residence Sunday morning at 8:30. Interment was made at the Green Lawn cemetery at Nelsonville Ohio, his former home. A special train carrying 177 members of the Order of Eagles, of which Society he was an honored member, accompanied the remains to the cemetery. A wife and one daughter, beside a host of other relatives and friends survive.

Death of Joseph Barthlow

Mr. Joseph Barthlow one of our best known and most esteemed citizens of Logan died on last Friday. He was one of the first promoters of the clay industry in Logan, and a useful and good citizen in all his relations of life. The funeral was on Sunday under the auspices of the Masons of which he was an honored member.

Ring of the Bell

Mr. Scott, travelling auditor for the Bell Telephone was in our city last week "inspecting". It is pleasant to know he finds, and so reports, the Logan office one among the very best conducted of any office in the service. This is a high compliment and an acceptable Christmas gift to Manager Beck, chief clerk Grace Green and all the girls of the office.

Few Plums

Mayor Dollison will have few plums to shake from the official tree. The places for his appointments are filled and the appointment times are not yet out. The mayor has the appointment of Library trustees, the Fire chief, the night and other Marshals.

Old, But Good as New

Uncle Jack Burgess, the veteran Democrat of Gore was a pleasant visitor in our city on last Saturday. He is one of our oldest and most esteemed citizens, 82 years of age and can read without the aid of glasses. We hope he spent a merry Christmas and wish him a happy New Year and many more years yet to come.

FOR STATE PRINTER

Our friend and fellow editor and Democrat, Col. J. W. Johnston of the Waverly Democrat is a candidate for the position of state printer, and we hope he will be appointed. He is a good printer, he is an accomplished Journalist, he is a thorough newspaper man, he is a Democrat. His service for the party deserve acknowledged merit. His qualifications merit this appointment. His candidacy is sustained by the press of Southern Ohio. Gov. Pattison will make no mistake in giving him this appointment, and the editors, especially those of Democratic newspapers in the Hocking Valley Editorial Association, and in the Buckeye Association, will approve.

We hope to see Bro. Johnston get the reward he deserves.

The Wall street stock market is excited over the report that the Czar of Russia has been assassinated. Market is very feverish.

Editor Chatfield, of the Murray City News and wife were visitors in our city today. Bro. Chatfield is on the war path. He is on the trail of Reformer White, he is after scalps.

Sheriff James Thomas whose term expires next Monday, retires from office with the good will and the approbation of the people in Hocking county. He has been an honest, a faithful official. He is a gentleman in all his relations, public and social and in retiring from office, carries with him the best wishes of everybody, regardless of politics, for a long life of as useful as has been his term in the public service of his county.

The great Christian festival, was celebrated by our Logan people in the true spirit. Religious services were held in all the churches. The homes were happy. The business of the town was suspended and everybody had a holiday. There were no heart-felt accidents, no disturbances. It was a Christian festival, an American Holiday. May the New Year be as happy as the Christmas was merry.

Governor Pattison will be installed as Governor on January 8th, St. Jacksons Day. He is a Democrat. He has been elected by a popular vote, in which not partisan politics had much to do in the campaign. It is hoped his administration will be on the Democratic lines of honesty, economy, and for best interests of the people of Ohio.

The Mayor of our town, Ed Tritsch, as we know him, retires from office by the verdict of the people's vote. He went down in the landslide that over whelmed his party. Mr. Tritsch is an estimable gentleman. He has made with the opportunity afforded him an excellent offices. He is one of our deserving young men and his record as councilman, and as Mayor are passed to his credit.
